

voyons-voir
job description assistant lighting designer

the assistance lighting designer's mission is to carry out the tasks assigned under the supervision of a project manager expectations of the position :

the lighting designer's mission throughout all the project, from conception to realization will be :

- carrying out all the tasks in good coherence with the project manager
- participate with the project manager in the analysis of the client's expectations and technical specifications (technical and budget)
- participate in the proposal of a lighting effects solutions
- formatting the renderings and sketches to present the project
- produce plans and details of the integration of lighting fixtures
- elaborating lighting tests using materials and lighting fixtures during lighting studies
- produce calculations and other drawings to validate the photometry of the luminaires
- participate with the project manager in the control and approval of the execution plans communicated

- participate with the project manager in the analysis of equivalences
- participate with the project manager in the implementation of all control points to ensure a follow-up of the quality of execution in accordance with our project
- participate with the project manager in the organization of the final focusing phase
- participate with the project manager in the supervision of the settings and the definition of the desired lighting moods and effects required qualities :

- dynamism
- spirit of initiative
- critical spirit
- aesthetic sensitivity
- sense of responsibility
- adaptability

applicants must be able to hand sketch and should be experienced users of photoshop, dialux, autocad, ideally revit and 3d software package.

if you are interested, please contact us at the email address admin@vvlighting.com

8 rue Titon,
75011 Paris
01 84 16 50 73
contact@vvlighting.com